MARK WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18 ON THE CALENDAR

HEMPSTEAD CHAMBER INVITES YOU TO HAVE SOME FUN AND TO ATTEND TO SOME SERIOUS BUSINESS

10 AM TO 1PM – MIRSCHEL PARK – CAMP DAY

6:30 PM – HEMPSTEAD LIBRARY – DEMONSTRATION OF NEW VOTING MACHINES

Mark the date, August 18, 2010, for Summer Fun and for Serious Business.

From 10 AM to 1 PM children from eight to thirteen are invited to attend Camp Day at Mirschel Park. The very special event is sponsored by the Village of Hempstead, National Grid and the Hempstead Chamber of Commerce. There will be contests, hot dogs, hamburgers, cold drinks and a whole lot of fun. Don't miss it. And make sure that your kids don't miss it.

On the same day at 6:30 PM in the evening, everyone is invited to attend a Special Meeting of the Hempstead Chamber of Commerce for a demonstration of the new voting machines which will be used for the first time in the Democratic and Republican primary elections on September 14, 2010. People from the Nassau County Board of Elections will be on hand to demonstrate the machines and attendees will be able to try them out. The event will be held in the Community Room of the Hempstead Library on Nichols Court.

The new machines are significantly different from the machines that have been in use for decades, combining the use of a paper ballot and a scanning system. The meeting offers voters a chance to learn about the new system and an opportunity to actually practice on the new machines. The business and civic communities and their friends are invited to participate in this event which we hope will make Primary Election Day go just a little bit easier.

We are looking forward to meeting you. No need to call, just attend.
